

Oppenheim Ephratah St Johnsville Central School District Athletic Department

TRADITION
STARTS HERE

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Oppenheim Ephratah St Johnsville Central School District has secured the services of Alexis Davis, ATC, certified athletic trainer from Bassett Healthcare Sports Medicine Program. The athletic trainer will be on site at our Jr/Sr High School facility on a weekly basis to evaluate student athletic injuries and to make recommendations for a medical consult and/or rehabilitation. The athletic trainer works closely with Bassett healthcare's orthopedic surgeons.

If you would like to have the services of the athletic trainer available for your student athlete in the event of an injury, please sign the permission form below. This permission form is valid for the 2022-2023 school year only.
